Red Flag Manager: Automated Solution for Red Flag Compliance*

Need Help Setting Up Your Red Flag Program?

If you're like many dealers, you may underestimate the time and effort involved in creating, implementing and maintaining an Identity Theft Prevention Program as required by the Red Flags Rule.

If you need help setting up your unique Red Flags Program, we've got good news!

Simple Automated Solution

CREDCO's Red Flag Solution now includes a simplified process component that walks you through the required steps to develop an Identity Theft Prevention Program – quickly and easily.

Powered by Compli, our new compliance tool was developed in consultation with Hudson Cook, LLP, to provide an automated means for helping you draft, rollout, train, monitor and report on your unique Red Flags Program.

“This solution takes much of the stress out of designing and documenting a dealer’s unique Identity Theft Prevention Program.”

Michael Benoit, Hudson Cook, LLP
